A Farm Visit

by Betsy Franco

My class went to a farm one day,
We touched the soft, brown cow.
We saw where all the milk came from-understand it all now.

We stroked a chicken's feathers,
And we touched a muddy pig.
Her hairs were like a bristly brush,
Her eyes weren't very big.

We watched the goats butt heads,
And put their hooves up on the wall.
A little baby lamb was
With her mama in a stall.

We ate some carrots from the ground,
A fresh and healthy snack.
That farm was really neat-
I hope my class and I go back.
